Strategies for Success: How to Write a Grant in Cancer CAM

Conducted by the National Cancer Institute's Office of Cancer Complementary and Alternative Medicine, the workshop is designed for researchers with an interest in cancer CAM. This workshop will:

- Address common application problems raised by review committees and present some of the potential solutions for applicants.
- Discuss challenges unique to preparing applications in cancer CAM topics.
- Include a "mock" review session and presentations from NIH program staff with an interest in supporting research in cancer CAM.
- Discuss the new Electronic Submission Process.
